

Date: 01/03/2019 to 08/03/2019

Understanding our responsibilities towards the society; the trust and institute organize “Joy of Giving Week” from 01/03/2019 to 078/03/2019. With this noble aim of helping the poor and needy the trust initiated new step ahead as “Rameshdada Nu Bhanter”, Helping Hand Website open for all for primary education. This initiative is working for the welfare of poor and vulnerable children.

Today, with the support of trust such children from slums and villages around Mehsana district by sending them to nearby school. The trust provides complete educational kit; having educational material and motivate them to start primary education. The college students and faculties have joined the hands to spread it on large spectrum by distributing maximum number of kits to all needy children.

Our honorable principal and Executive director of institute were present on that occasion. Principal Madam presented her unique view on today’s generation basic requirements of Education with food, shelter and cloths. She added that one educated person helpful to three generation. For doing good work require heartily try there is not requirement of money. She favored the student’s attempt of one person send five children to school per year.

